

YOUTH EMPOWERMENT

The A. D. King Foundation is committed to transforming the culture with positive media messages that equip our youth and young adults for success in the 21st century. Through our mentoring and internship relationships with our youth and young adult population, we teach them to create, own, produce and market television pilots, positive imaging, positive music and lyrics, poetry, You Tube projects, Internet blogging, book publications, radio shows, Internet talk shows and reality shows, and other creative projects.

Working with the finest professionals in the various industries outlined above, we provide attainable and sustainable tools for success for our youth and young adults. Entrepreneurship, good citizenship, global awareness and successful interaction with other cultures, positive purpose and beneficial quality of life are major themes of this initiative.

I HAVE A DREAM TOO!!

The first is the word Think – think about the values and principles that are going to live by; You must acquire problem solving skills, become an intellectual, philosopher and think outside the box.

The second word is Believe – believe in yourself based on the thinking you have done about the values and principles that you are going to live by; With God, all things are possible, the sky is just the beginning. Believe that you are a collective experience of all that ever lived before you--you are somebody. "I am wonderfully made."

The third is Dream – Dream about something that you want to be based on your belief in yourself, dream big, because dream gives you hope, dream is empowering and dream expands your horizon beyond your imagination.

The fourth is Dare:: Dare to make your dream a reality. Make it happen- no excuses....and the last but not the least is:

Become an Entrepreneur and embrace the spirit of entrepreneurship, entrepreneurial mind set and culture. Create the mind set of self-sufficiency rather than dependency. Build your own wealth, not job seekers but an employer of labor.

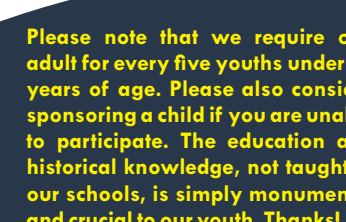

With our sacrifice, courage and determination, we shall overcome.
